Memdū August 29th 1681. came Emanuel Ratcliffe according to summons into the Upper house of Assembly before the Councill then sitting and upon his Examination gave this foll.
Deposition viz.

August 29th 1681 : p. 281

Emanuel Ratcliffe Examined saith that James Tarleton who was servant to Waughob told him that Thomas Courtney had forewarned the miller from goeing to Church, and the miller said he would never goe to Church soe long as he had an hour to serve, and they that did had best looke to it. He likewise confesses that he Reported that Plymouth Dublin and Killkenny was burnt, and that he heard it at M^r Mathews at Cherry Point
